ACTI Faculty Fellowship Application
2023 Spring Semester

ACTI Mission

The Academy of Catholic Thought and Imagination (ACTI) at Loyola Marymount University serves as a hub for scholarship, interdisciplinary research, innovative pedagogy, and creative outreach across LMU’s campus, in the southwest United States and beyond.

ACTI embraces an open dialogue within the Catholic intellectual tradition by developing, critically examining, communicating, or otherwise engaging the rich resources of Catholic thought and imagination, especially as it is informed by Jesuit and Ignatian spirituality.

ACTI promotes intellectual and spiritual discernment with the creation of bridges that allow constructive dialogues between Catholicism and other religions. The Academy is also interested in the sacramental value of the sciences and the arts, and the links between spirituality and technology.

Proposals

ACTI Fellowships provide faculty with opportunities to complete a substantial research/creative project or to concentrate effort at a critical phase of a research/creative project that is consistent with the mission of the Academy of Catholic Thought and Imagination. Such projects may take diverse forms: developing, critically engaging, expanding, adding to, questioning, or explaining aspects of the Catholic intellectual tradition or its various concerns; entering into dialogue with thought or imagination from the perspective of a different faith tradition or no faith tradition.

ACTI will prioritize projects that discern the following topics:

- Equity
- Inclusion
- Diversity

ACTI seeks faculty’s proposals from across all of the University’s Colleges and Schools. Those interested in the ACTI Fellowship should:

· be willing to work with others across disciplines in collaboration on projects
· interact with other ACTI Fellows
· participate in ACTI events and encourage others to join them
· publish their research and/or projects in a manner appropriate to their disciplines and credit ACTI’s support in their publication
· present their research and/or projects to the LMU community in consultation with the ACTI Director. The presentation must take place within the academic semester of their appointment.

ACTI Fellows are released from a portion of their regular responsibilities during the fellowship semester. Each ACTI Fellow will receive a course remission from one 3- or 4-unit course. Release from university and departmental service as appropriate must be negotiated with your department chair and dean.

Eligibility Criteria

- Full-time tenured or tenure-track faculty in any LMU School or College
- Chairs of Departments are ineligible during their terms
- A faculty member is eligible to receive a Faculty Fellowship only once during any three-year period. Thus, if awarded a Fellowship for the fall 2018 semester, a recipient would be eligible to receive a Fellowship again in spring 2022.
- Faculty taking a sabbatical may apply for a Faculty Fellowship during the semester immediately before or after a regularly scheduled sabbatical. However, grant proposals must clearly delineate how the sabbatical project is distinct from or augmented by the Faculty Fellowship.

Application Process & Deadlines

Please follow the grant application procedures in this document, paying careful attention to key dates. Contact the Academy prior to the deadline date if you cannot download or print out the application. Applications that are incomplete, late, or do not conform to the printed guidelines and instructions will not be accepted or considered by the ACTI Fellow Committee.

1. Applications are due Saturday, August 20, 2022 no later than 5 pm to the ACTI Office, Xavier 117. They may also be emailed to Alexander Thurnher at Alexander.Thurnher@lmu.edu
2. The ACTI Fellow Committee will make the final decision and will inform the recipient and the recommending Chair by Wednesday, August 31, 2022.

APPLICATION CHECKLIST:

PROJECT PROPOSAL NARRATIVE

Provide a title and a project description with the five headings listed below, addressing all items in specific order. Since scholars from many fields will be evaluating the submissions, the proposal should be written free of academic jargon.

1. TITLE AND PROJECT DESCRIPTION: A description of your project. State research question(s) and goal(s), defining any terms specific to your discipline. Include any ways that your project is in dialogue with other disciplines.

2. SIGNIFICANCE: Discussion of the significance of the project in relation to the Catholic intellectual tradition and to your own field.

3. METHOD: The methodology or approach to the project should be outlined.

4. TIMELINE OF PROJECT: A detailed timetable for completion of the project should be provided. This should identify the current stage of the project and a realistic statement of what can be accomplished during the project period.

5. STATEMENT: A clear statement regarding either the likelihood of completing a significant project for publication OR how the fellowship will allow the recipient to devote concentrated effort during a “critical” phase in a scholarly or creative project. Further, preference will be given to applicants who can show how this project will be incorporated into classroom activities and work with students.
